

Top Tips for planing a Winter Wedding in Ireland

For the most part Ireland has quite a moderate climate which together with its fairytale castle & manor house venues make Ireland an amazing location for Winter Weddings .Today we share our Top Tips for Planning a Winter Wedding in Ireland.

Venue

Choose from one of our many venues with roaring fires, glowing candles & that wonderful cozy, luxury atmosphere make them the ideal locations for your Winter Wedding in Ireland !

Savings

Winter is considered Off Peak so lots of scope for savings and venues /vendors sure to negotiate on price.

Ceremony Time

Plan for an early ceremony to maximise opportunities for outdoor photos in natural day light.

Lighting

Winter oozes romance with candlelight galore & mood lighting to flood the space with warm, amber-colored light.

Vendors

As Winter is not peak season you are sure to have a great selection of the very best vendors to choose from.

Food

Consider serving a warm appetizer, soup course & warm dessert
Include some warm canapés in your hors d'oeuvres
Opportunity to serve some rare fowl such as pheasant which will make a very interesting main course.

Finish dinner with selection of Irish Cheeses & Port

For the more casual dinner have “Winter Reception Dinner Stations” and stations can include winter favourites such as a Soup station,

Carving station, Pasta station & Dessert station serving chocolate fondue!

Beverages

Pre Dinner Cocktail – Hot Mulled Wine /Hot Irish Toddy(Whiskey)

Late Night Treat – Hot Chocolate & Marshmallows

Transportation

For even the shortest journey from ceremony to reception for your Winter Wedding I would suggest having transporation available encase of cold winter chill or rain.

Attire

Consider shawls /faux fur shrugs for the bridesmaids & yourself

Don't forget some boots for the outdoor photos !

Colour Palettes

Ivory, green & gold for the Traditional Wedding

Teal & brown for the Classical Winter Manor Wedding

White, silver & blue for a Modern Theme

Green, Pink, Ivory & Burgundy perfect for your Castle Wedding

Black, Brown, Green & Ivory for a Rhustic Wedding.
